VI. There was discussion on the JABGA and their plan as submitted to the office was reviewed. The Executive Committee recommended the plan be returned to the JABGA with the directive that they cannot implement any of the items proposed until approved by the entire JABGA Advisory Committee and the Executive Committee or ABGA Board of Directors. The Executive Director is to set a meeting with the JABGA Advisory Committee Chairman Robert Washington, the advisors elected (from that committee) by the JABGA, the current JABGA President, and any others the Executive Director feels necessary to formulate an outline for the JABGA. It is further recommended that following the above mentioned meeting that the Executive Committee writes a rules and protocol guideline for the JABGA.

VII. The Executive Committee discusses the registration process and recommended changes to be included in revise rules of registration to be presented to the Board of Directors.
1. The office develop and use an “error” report to correct what is needed on registration papers rather than sending the papers back to the owner in order to protect against lost materials.
2. ABGA is to accept only hard copy registration papers from other associations.
3. Registration and transfer on non-ABGA animals are to be the same as current fee schedule for ABGA animals.
4. Consider limited ownership to a total of 4 owners.
5. Consider the removal of the service memo requirement for registration.
6. Consider the following ABGA registration applications on animals sold prior to registration will require a transfer fee of $5.00 as well as the appropriate registration fee when the application is presented for registration.

VIII. The Executive Committee discussed a program of DNA testing of all sires used for artificial insemination and/or embryo transfer be consider in the revise rules of registration.

IX. The Executive Committee discussed the cost associated with the awards given during the National Show. It is recommended that the Executive Director solicit bids for these items where possible, approve all bids, invoices, and make the item purchases through the office. It is further recommended that all award presentations at the National Show will be approved by the ABGA President.
X. It was suggested that there be a general risk disclaimer for the entire Association, including all programs, formulated by the ABGA attorney.

Meeting was adjourned at 6:30 PM
