MOTION PASSED
The 2005 Budget and Financial Statements of the Association were reviewed:

a.) The Board of Directors issued a directive to the Executive Director to move the Certificates of Deposit held by the Association to a laddered 5 year investment plan. Also, $65,000 of the funds in the Associations’ Money Market Account is to be retained for short term cash needs with the balance in excess of that amount to be moved to the Associations’ Certificate of Deposit accounts.

b.) Magazine publication and expenses were reviewed. The adjustment of advertising rates was discussed, reviewed and new rates approved. The new rates to go into effect with the September/October issue. The new rate schedule is to be published in the magazine and placed on the web site. A discount of 5% will be offered for contracts of 6 months.

c.) The feasibility of out-sourcing the printing of the ABGA caps and t-shirts was discussed. If out-sourced a small fee would be returned to ABGA for each item sold. Robert Swize is to contact several individuals and/or firms to determine what is available.

d.) The 2005 National Show and its estimated expenses were discussed. David Carter advised that, if the JABGA Show comes with the ABGA National Show, ABGA can reportedly apply for up to $5000 through the State of Kentucky. Robert Swize is to make a trip to Kentucky to look over the facility with David Carter and discuss all options of the show with the facility. The budget for the 2005 National Show was approved.

e.) Sanction show funding as shown on the 2005 budget was approved. The funding for designated major shows will be increased to $1000 plus the ribbon package.

f.) Membership Education Seminars.
Norman Kohls is working on the items to be presented and put together in a usable program format. A trial presentation to the Board of Directors is expected after the Christmas 2004 holiday with scheduling of presentations to the membership in different areas of the country to follow.

g.) Norman Kohls was appointed Chairman of the Judge’s Certification Committee due to Richard Parmer resigning due to business time constraints. The first Judge’s Certification program is to be set for some time in April. Norman is to contact Dr. Frank Craddock about organizing the program.

h.) Fee Changes:
   (1). New Member Fees: A new schedule of membership fees was approved. Membership fees will now be $50 anytime from Jan 1 through June 30th and $25 anytime from July 1 through December 31. Membership fees will no longer be prorated by the month.

   (2). All applications for registration with ABGA, which are not submitted by the breeder of record, will require a registration fee and a transfer fee to the new owner (if the owner submitting the application is not the breeder of record).

   (3). All Non ABGA registration certificates submitted to ABGA will require a registration fee plus a transfer fee if the person submitting the certificate is not shown as the registered owner on the certificate being submitted.

i.) Advertising and the promotion of ABGA was discussed. Funding and budgeting was approved for new web site development, new breed literature brochure, and an educational article that will be a magazine pull out.

j.) The ABGA Affiliate Club Guidelines was approved with a start up date of March 2005.

k.) The hiring of a staff person to serve as Youth Director and part time ABGA person as well was approved. The JABGA will contribute to the salary for the Youth Director.

l.) The lease of a copier with a maintenance agreement was approved. The purchase of a new laptop computer and new computer monitors for the office were approved.
