

2018 ABGA / JABGA National Show Rules

Eligibility – ABGA National Show: Exhibitors must be a current active adult or junior member or junior member's sibling or step sibling with current membership at same address with linked junior accounts documented with the American Boer Goat Association to submit a show entry for the ABGA National Show. Competition is open to goats registered in the Herd books of ABGA. No entries will be accepted until the animal is first registered in an ABGA herd book. Active or junior members of ABGA must be listed as the current owner on the ABGA registration prior to entry. Custom fitters/ agents, if different from the owner, will register with the Show Chair if the owner will not be in attendance at the show. There is no limit on the number of goats that can be entered in a class by a member. Application for entry must be on current, official entry forms. Junior members can enter the ABGA National Show by completing the entry and paying the correct fees for each goat.

Eligibility – JABGA National Show: Exhibitors must be a current member of the Junior American Boer Goat Association to submit a show entry for the JABGA National Show. Goats must be registered in the JABGA member's name or junior member's sibling or step sibling with current membership at same address with linked junior accounts documented with ABGA. All goats that are not bred and owned over the age of ninety (90) days must be in the herdbook by May 14, 2018 11:59 P.M. CST. No ranch or family name can be listed in the owner section of the certificate. There is no limit on the number of goats that can be entered in a class by a member. If the JABGA owner has more than one entry in a class, the other goats must be shown by another JABGA member. Application for entry must be on current, official entry forms.

Defining an Exhibitor: Throughout the ABGA and JABGA National Show Rules the term "exhibitor" is defined as the owner or junior member's sibling or step sibling with current membership with linked junior accounts documented with ABGA, of the goat listed in the ABGA registry.

Defining a Participant: Throughout the ABGA National Show and JABGA National Show Rules the term "participant" includes but is not limited to an exhibitor, agent, custom fitter, vendor, office staff, ring steward or spectator.

Junior Exhibitor Age Requirement: In order to show, the junior exhibitor must be at least 4 years of age on the day of the show. Maximum exhibitor age is 18 years of age on January 1,

JABGA Showmanship Classes: Exhibitors entered in showmanship classes must own or be a junior member's sibling or step sibling with current membership at same address with linked junior accounts documented with the ABGA of the goat that is being shown. The animal shown in showmanship must have been entered in the JABGA or JABGA Bred and Owned show by the same exhibitor showing it in showmanship. Age division will be determined based on the contestant's age on January 1st, for the division of competition.

- a. Junior Division- 4-8 years of age
- b. Intermediate Division- 9-13 years of age
- c. Senior Division- 14-18 years of age

Special Needs of an Exhibitor: Exhibitors with special needs are required to indicate what special needs they have on the entry form and check in at the office upon arrival at the show.

Interpretation and Violation of Rules During the Show: The American Boer Goat Association (ABGA) Executive Committee has final and absolute right to interpret these rules and to arbitrarily settle and determine all matters, questions and differences in regard thereto or occurring during, or incident to, the ABGA National Show or JABGA National Show. The ABGA further reserves to its Executive Committee the right to amend or add to these rules as its judgment may determine. Any exhibitor, custom fitter, agent or spectator who violates any of the rules will forfeit all privileges and be subject to such penalty as the Executive Committee may order. The Executive Committee may apply other penalties and sanctions from time to time as deemed appropriate.

Show Superintendents: National Show regulations and show rules will be adhered to and enforced by ABGA National Show Superintendents.

Judges Decision: The decision of the judges shall be final in all cases except where fraud or misrepresentation on the part of an exhibitor is proven. Any such claim of an exhibitor's fraud or misrepresentation must be timely submitted as an official protest.

Official Protests: Official protests for exhibitor's fraud or misrepresentation shall be submitted to the Show Chair in writing and be accompanied by $300.00 fee. The ABGA Executive Committee reserves the right to refund the $300.00 fee. Only members in good standing with ABGA can file a protest. Any such protest must plainly state the fraud or misrepresentation of the exhibitor. Any protest filed more than 24 hours after the alleged incident shall not be considered. Protests shall be referred to the Executive Committee which shall have full and final authority to determine the matter and from whose decision there is no appeal. The Executive Committee will determine the method in which the protest is reviewed. Judging procedures shall not be interrupted for protest investigation.

Disqualification: Any goat showing any pronounced defect or abnormality will be barred from the show. Any evidence of a cosmetic surgical alteration of an exhibited goat will be a disqualification. Any goat found not to be in accordance with ABGA Rules and Regulations will be disqualified. Artificial coloring that alters the natural color of a goat will be a disqualification. Artificial coloring that enhances the goat's natural color is acceptable. Illegible tattoos or tattoos inconsistent with registration papers will result in disqualification. A microchip inconsistent with registration papers will result in disqualification. An exhibitor must provide a reading device if a microchip is utilized for identification. Any goat testing positive for any performance enhancing drug and/or chemical, their substitutes or derivatives will be disqualified. Should any goat that has been awarded a prize be disqualified before its class has been dismissed from the show ring, the lower placing goats shall move up to fill the vacancy. Should any goat be disqualified after the class has been dismissed from the show ring, the lower placing goats will not move into any higher position.

No Liability: ABGA or JABGA SHALL NOT BE RESPONSIBLE FOR ANY LOSS, INJURY OR DAMAGE IN CONNECTION WITH, ARISING OUT OF OR INCIDENTAL TO THE ABGA NATIONAL SHOW or JABGA NATIONAL SHOW.

Release of Liability: PARTICIPANT EXPRESSLY WAIVES ALL RIGHTS TO CLAIM AGAINST ABGA BY REASON OF, AND RELEASES ABGA FROM ANY LIABILITY WHATSOEVER WITH RESPECT TO, ANY INJURY TO PERSON OR DAMAGE TO OR LOSS OF PROPERTY (INCLUDING CONSEQUENTIAL DAMAGES) RESULTING FROM ANY CAUSE WHATSOEVER (EXPRESSLY INCLUDING ABGA'S NEGLIGENCE).

Indemnification: PARTICIPANT AGREES TO HOLD HARMLESS AND UNCONDITIONALLY INDEMNIFY ABGA AGAINST AND FOR ALL CLAIMS, LIABILITIES, LOSSES, COSTS, EXPENSES, AND DAMAGES (ACTUAL, CONSEQUENTIAL OR PUNITIVE) WHICH ABGA MAY AT ANY TIME SUFFER OR SUSTAIN OR BECOME LIABLE FOR BY REASON OF ANY ACCIDENTS, DAMAGES, INJURIES OR LOSSES EITHER TO PERSONS, PROPERTY OR BOTH,

OF PARTICIPANT, OF ANY OTHER PARTICIPANT, OF ANY OTHER PARTIES, OR TO THE PROPERTY OF ABGA, IN ANY MATTER ARISING FROM, CONNECTED WITH OR INCIDENT TO THE ACTIVITIES HEREUNDER, INCLUDING BUT NOT LIMITED TO ANY NEGLIGENT ACT OR OMISSION OF ABGA, IT'S OFFICERS AGENTS, EMPLOYEES OR VOLUNTEERS. [THE TERM "ABGA" MEANS AMERICAN BOER GOAT ASSOCIATION, JUNIOR AMERICAN BOER GOAT ASSOCIATION, ITS OFFICERS, DIRECTORS, AGENTS, EMPLOYEES, RING STEWARDS, AND VOLUNTEERS.]

Computing Ages for ABGA & JABGA National Show: ABGA will establish June 1 as the date for computing age classes.

Determining Class Breaks for Junior Division ABGA National Show: The Junior Division in the Percentage does, Fullblood Does and Fullblood Bucks will be broken by age starting with the youngest to the oldest with no more than a 90 day age spread in each class. Class breaks will not be determined until all entries have checked in at the National Show.

Entry Deadline: To enter the 2018 National show without paying late entry fees, your entries must be in the ABGA office by the end of business day May 7, 2018 (5:00 P.M. CST). Entry fees are nonrefundable.

Entry Fees / Late Entries: The entry fee for goats is $40 per head in the ABGA National Show and $30 per head in the JABGA National Show. The entry fee for the Bred and Owned JABGA is $20 per head. Substitutions are available for a fee of $25 per head until the end of Check In at 4:00 p.m. Sunday June 10, 2018 for JABGA exhibitors, and 12:00 p.m. Monday, June 11, 2018, for ABGA Open Show Exhibitors.

All entry fee(s) for goats received after 5:00 P.M. CST on May 8th are subject to a late fee. Mail courier and other delays are not considered in determining entry fees: the receipt date will determine if a late entry fee is required. There will be an additional $10 per animal late fee charged for each class entry received between May 8th 2018 and May 15th 2018. Any late entries received from May 16th 2018 and before the end of Check In at 4:00 p.m. Sunday June 10th 2018 for JABGA exhibitors, and 12:00 p.m. Monday, June 11th, 2018, for ABGA Open Show Exhibitors will require a double entry fee. Any entry received after May 15, 2018 will not be in the show program.

No entries will be accepted until the animal is first listed in the ABGA herd book. Entries are required to provide the information as listed on the entry form. Entry for group classes is required but will also be done at check-in.

Identification: All goats must have a legible permanent ear identification (ear tags* are not permanent IDs) and or a microchip (owner must supply reader) corresponding to the ABGA registration certificate upon arrival on the grounds. GOATS WILL BE DISQUALIFIED FROM JUDGING WITHOUT PROPER IDENTIFICATION. All goats must be registered purebred, fullblood or percentage Boer goats. Percentage doe classes are for goats 50% to 87.5% Boer. Fullblood classes are for does that are 15/16 blood (93.7%) and higher and 31/32 blood (96.8%) and higher for bucks. Progeny of fresh does will NOT be allowed in the ring. Goats entered in group classes also must be entered and shown in the appropriate individual class. Any animal disqualified in a regular class for a cull fault or tattoo will not be eligible for the pairs or group classes. (*please see attached JABGA National Regional Show rules in reference to Commercial Does and Market Goats.)

By 24 months of age, does must have kidded or show evidence of visible udder formation consistent with late-term pregnancy. JABGA Bred & Owned Classes: All JABGA National Show entries where the JABGA member is both the animal's sole Breeder and Owner can be entered into the applicable JABGA Bred & Owned Class in addition to the regular class for an additional $20.00. The breeder of an animal is the owner or lessee of record of a kid's dam on the date of service.

Heelers / JABGA National Show: Heelers are allowed in the JABGA National Show in the yearling classes and older to assist youth exhibitors under the age of twelve (12) as of January 1, 2018 or members with physical or mental disabilities. [The youth exhibitor must show their goat and be assisted by the heeler]. Heelers must be current JABGA Member. A heeler is allowed to only lead and or hold the animal.

Unauthorized Goats: Goats for which the owner has not paid an entry fee will not be allowed on the grounds, with the exception of those goats that are nursing (Examples: the dam of a 60-day-old entry or the 40-day-old offspring of a two-year-old entry). All goats on the grounds must meet Nebraska State health requirements.

Unruly Goats: The exhibitor will be liable for damage to fences, other goats or injury to people. In addition to penning, unruly bucks may be required to be restrained or removed from the show if deemed necessary by the show management. If any goat is a threat to the public or is unruly, precautions must be taken. Exhibitors are responsible for the actions of their goats. Judging: Exhibitors are responsible for knowing the times at which their goats will be judged. Any goat not presented promptly will be ruled ineligible and barred from competition in the class.

Participant Conduct: If any participant, in any way, whether in person or by agent or employee, interferes with the judges, show officials or staff during their adjudication or shows any disrespect to them or the show, ABGA may demand a proper apology from the exhibitor, may exclude the exhibitor and goat in question from competition, bar exhibitor from the grounds, and may also withhold prizes that may have been awarded. The Executive Committee may apply other penalties and sanctions from time to time as deemed appropriate.

Nebraska State Fairgrounds at Fonner Park Regulations: Exhibitors are responsible for knowing the regulations of the Nebraska State Fairgrounds. Regulations will be enforced by ABGA Show Chair and/or Nebraska State Fairgrounds at Fonner Park officials. Any charges or material cost incurred by ABGA due to an exhibitor violation or ignorance of these regulations will be paid by the exhibitor. The facility is a non-smoking, no alcohol venue, and cooking is not allowed inside the facility.

Goat Health Requirements: To be eligible to compete at the ABGA / JABGA National Shows exhibitors will need a Medication Report filled out and turned into the office with their entry packet. Goats must be accompanied by a current health certificate to enter the state of Nebraska. The health certificate is to be issued by your veterinarian within the past 30 days and must state the goats are for show purposes. All goats are expected to be healthy, free of disease and in show condition. All goats in the barn must comply with Federal and State Scrapie and the state of Nebraska animal health requirements. ABGA assumes no duty or responsibility nor shall it otherwise be liable to any exhibitor for any of the following: (i) the prevention of disease; (ii) the protection of goats from disease or exposure to disease; (iii) the enforcement of animal health laws or regulations; or (iv) notifications or warnings about disease or other animal health related concerns. In this regard, ABGA shall not be liable for any damages, injuries or losses arising from, connected with or related to disease or the exposure of goats thereto. This includes, but is not limited to, actual and consequential damages.

Nebraska State Veterinary Office: The Nebraska State USDA Office contact number is (402) 471-2351. The website is: www.nda.nebraska.gov/regulations/animal/tilac.html#7. Each exhibitor's veterinarian is required to call the Nebraska State USDA Office to obtain animal health requirements. Exhibitors failing to meet Nebraska animal health requirements are subject to fines and removal from the Nebraska State Fairgrounds at Fonner Park.

Veterinary Services: ABGA will provide contact information to exhibitors during check-in of a local veterinarian that can assist exhibitors with goat health issues. The contact information of the veterinarian will also be posted in the check-in area.

Pets: Pets (dogs, in particular) are strictly prohibited from being on the grounds.

Exhibitor Parking: The Nebraska State Fairgrounds at Fonner Park will provide trailer parking which is at the risk of the exhibitor. Exhibitors may only park in designated areas reserved for the ABGA Nationals. Vehicles and trailers improperly parked will be fined and towed at the exhibitor's expense.

Exhibitor Numbers: Each entry will be assigned a number. Exhibitors will receive cards which correspond with the numbers; these cards must be worn by the exhibitor in the show ring when goats are being judged.

Show Schedule: A tentative schedule is listed in the show packet and noted as subject to change. The schedule of classes for the show will be posted each day. The schedule of classes is at the discretion of the Ring Stewards based on in the barn entries.

All Goats MUST Be Out of the Barn by Noon Sat., June 16, 2018.

Buy In Arrival: For a fee, ABGA National Show Exhibitors will be permitted to arrive and unload on Saturday June 8th from 4:00 pm-8:00 pm. A fee of $10 per head with a maximum cost of $100 per Exhibitor will be charged for early arrival. Only JABGA entries are exempt from this fee. ABGA entries traveling with a JABGA participant are not exempt from the early arrival fee.

Fitting: Fitting will be left to the discretion of the exhibitor. All fitting and trimming must be done in the designated area. No fitting or trimming will be permitted in the arena area. Any altering of pigmentation is prohibited. If an exhibitor's goat is found to have altered pigmentation, the goat will be disqualified from the show and the exhibitor will be subject to terms of ABGA Rules and Regulations. Any evidence of a cosmetic surgical alteration of an exhibited goat will be a disqualification and that exhibitor will be subject to terms of ABGA Rules and Regulations. The use of any performance enhancing drug and/or chemical, their substitutes or derivatives, is prohibited and will result in disqualification and that exhibitor will be subject to terms of ABGA Rules and Regulations. The exhibitor agrees to submit any goat entered by him/her to inspection by any veterinarian appointed by the Board of Directors and agrees to have such goat submitted to such tests as may be requested.

DNA Testing / Urine, Ultrasound, Blood, or Hair Testing: The ABGA reserves the right to perform one or any combination of a random DNA, urine, blood, and or hair laboratory test, and or an ultrasound scan of any goat entered for competition, at ABGA's discretion. The ABGA reserves the right to test any or all champions at their discretion. The conclusions based upon the analysis of any of these tests by the veterinarian in charge shall be final, conclusive, and without recourse against ABGA, any officer, director, volunteer or employee there of or any veterinarian appointed by the ABGA. The exhibitor waives any right of action which he might have for action taken under this rule and releases ABGA and the veterinarian from any claims or demands whatsoever in connection with the inspection or testing of any such goat or any ruling or action taken due to the conclusion of the veterinarian. All testing required by the ABGA will be performed at a laboratory selected by ABGA, excluding ultrasound which may be performed on location, will be paid for by ABGA and will be completed within 60 days after the show. If a goat tests positive for a performance enhancing substance at the national show the exhibitor will be subject to disciplinary actions as described in the ABGA Rules and Regulations.

NOTE: With the exception of sales of semen or goats owned by the exhibitor advertising on the End Cap, or the exhibitor whose goats are penned in the pens, NO VENDOR OR INDIVIDUAL SALES WILL BE ALLOWED from the Display / Tack Pens or End Cap Areas. End Cap Size: 12 X 6. Exhibitor's Display must stay within the defined area for end caps.

Pens: Pens will be assigned based on 1.5 goats per pen based on the number goats presented by the exhibitor to show officials at check-in. Allowances are made for a tack area and multiple bucks over one year of age providing space is available. The assigning of pens is at the discretion of the superintendents. Pens for entries received at check-in are subject to availability. Additional shavings will be available for a fee at the Fairgrounds office. Pens will be pre-assigned before the show. Members can divide the pens with a divider. If several exhibitors want to pen together, they must note this on their entry form. Exhibitors may have a sign over their exhibit advertising their own herd. Show Superintendents can remove exhibitors' signs at their discretion. A goat pen can be used as a tack or display as long as the display and tack fits in the pen. Tack and goat carts will not be allowed in alleys, showing area or staging area. Pen Size 6x6.

Premier Exhibitor Award: The Premier Exhibitor Award will be given to the Premier Percentage Exhibitor and the Premier Fullblood Exhibitor determined by the 10 point system. The exhibitor must be an active member of ABGA and be listed as the current owner on the ABGA registration certificate and in ABGA records. Each exhibitor must enter a minimum of three goats in the respective herd books. If there are 10 or more goats in the class, the first place goat will receive 10 points, second place 9 points, etc., through tenth. If there are less than 10 goats, the first place goat will receive points equal to the number in the class. Class totals will be determined from the total number of goats entered in a class from the official class sheets. Goats owned in partnership will accrue points for that partnership towards the Premier Percentage Exhibitor or Premier Full Blood Exhibitor Award. In the event of a tie, the exhibitor winning the most first place awards will receive the award. If the tie still exists, then the one with the most second place awards will win. If necessary, this process will continue until the tie is broken. ABGA will post accumulated points daily. It will be the responsibility of the exhibitor to review these points and report any discrepancies to the Show Chair.
