Showmanship is the ability to present you and your animal in the best form possible. It is the appearance, the presentation, and the knowledge of your animal and the Boer goat industry. Showmanship begins long before you arrive at the show and is dependent on hard work and practice with your animal.

1. There will be 2 showmanship competitions representing both market/commercial livestock and ABGA breeding livestock. Animals exhibited in commercial/wether classes may only be used in market showmanship. Animals exhibited in breeding classes may only be used in breeding showmanship. Participants may participate in both showmanship classes.
2. Age division will be determined based on the contestant's age on the first Saturday following Nationals, for the division of competition. (Disclaimer...May not be 19 years of age on January 1st to be eligible to compete per ABGA Bylaws).
 - a. Junior Division- 4-8 years of age
 - b. Intermediate Division 9-13
 - c. Senior Division- 14 years and over
3. Each exhibitor must use their own animal for the showmanship competition if they have one entered into the JABGA Sanctioned, or market/commercial show.
 - a. Any discrepancies must be reported to show management before class placing is final.
4. Participants that do not have an animal entered into any JABGA competition may borrow an animal for showmanship purposes only. That selected animal can only be used by one exhibitor during the competition and cannot be exhibited by multiple participants.
5. Dress would be jeans and nice shirt. Preferably closed leather shoes and a belt, but not required.

Sales talk uses a live setting complete with a live animal, photo or pedigree and potential buyers. This contest is a mock sales situation—you are selling your animal to buyers. The purpose is to evaluate the effectiveness of the presentation and the contestant’s ability to merchandise Boer Goats. Contestants will be judged on their knowledge of the animal, semen or embryos they are selling, their ability to relay important information, and their overall effectiveness in convincing the judges to buy their product.

1. Time Allotted: 4-7 minutes.
2. Materials: A live animal (another individual should hold the animal), photo (no larger than 8 x 10) or a registration certificate for the animal, semen or embryos being “sold”.
3. Dress: There is no required dress, but it is important to keep in mind that appearance is important when marketing yourself and your animals. Nice jeans, boots, and button down shirts are suggested.
4. Ties: in the event of ties in sales talk, they will be broken by comparing scores in the following judging sections:
 - a. Content of Sales Pitch
 - b. Total Effectiveness of Sale
 - c. Knowledge of Response to Questions
 - d. Ability to Communicate
